

Painting & Creative Writing Holiday Plockton, Spring 2012

May 12 - 19

The beautiful village of Plockton in Wester Ross with its charming seaside setting, white cottages and palm trees is an artist's and writer's dream location. A National Trust conservation village it has carefully preserved its heritage and draws artists and photographers from around the world. It is the jewel in the western Highlands' crown.

For one week in May 2012 (12-19) Plockton will play host to a unique creative holiday for artists and writers of all abilities under the guidance of renowned artists and top tutors Chris Forsey, Susie Hunt, Catriona Millar and the writer and arts critic Roddy Phillips.

You will be working outside and in the Village Hall with our tutors and you can choose which course you take part in. You can focus on painting or writing, or participate in elements of both. Accommodation and breakfast are provided and a seal watch boat trip. Plockton has several very good hotels and restaurants ideal for social and creative interaction.

The price per person including breakfast and one hour boat trip for seal watching is, £550 Single occupancy, £490 shared occupancy, £480 sharing couples. (£150 non-refundable booking fee)
Cheques payable to: Susie Hunt, Mill Farm, Kemnay, Inverurie, Aberdeenshire AB51 5NY
